

Wickenburg Art Club

Clay Club Rules and Regulations

Membership

1. An active membership in the Wickenburg Art Club is prerequisite to belonging to the Clay Club. Membership is acquired by completing the beginners/orientation class or by demonstrating reasonable skill with clay and also completing the orientation. All persons who wish to work in the clay studio must be members of the Clay Club.
2. Membership shall require WAC volunteer time, to be determined. Volunteer time may include the duties of committee members, club officers, and/or chairpersons.
3. The Clay Club is established for creative purposes only and the rules shall not be construed to allow the club to be used for mass commercial purposes. NO COMMERCIAL USAGE OF CLAY FACILITIES WILL BE PERMITTED. Safety rules for use of the clay room are posted within and will be adhered to by clay club members. Membership may be revoked for violations of this rule. The WAC board shall be the sole judge in this matter.
4. Removing any tools, equipment, molds, stamps or other equipment that belongs to the clay club is prohibited without prior permission. If a Clay Club member damages Clay Club equipment, the member will pay for the damages.
5. Being treated with respect and civility are expectations by all members of WAC and the Clay Club. Membership may be revoked for anyone who does not engage in these practices.
6. Clay production relies on the space and numbers of artists involved. Due to current limited physical space, Clay Club chairs may limit the processing of items.
7. Touch your own work and no one else's. If an accident happens, leave a note.
8. Anyone working in the clay area that is not a Clay Club member may lose membership privileges in the Wickenburg Art Club.
