

Wickenburg Art Club

Double Takes - 2018

This year we have some exciting twists to our annual Double Takes show!!!

Writers: Now that the Hassayampa Writers Group is part of the Wickenburg Art Club, those members are going to have the chance to participate as well!

Timeline: In order that more members have a chance to participate, the selection process will take place during the November General Meeting, rather than October as we have done in the past. Also, to allow for more exciting exhibits in the front gallery the show will last for one month. So be ready to roll, there will be a lot going on!!

Here are the details:

Photographs:

During our November General Meeting juried WAC photographer-members --and writers!-- will provide prints --or writers can provide poems or short written pieces-- to act as an inspiration for another WAC artist to create a corresponding work of art. Numbers will be handed out to juried WAC artists who want to participate --first come, first serve-- starting at 6:00 that evening. During the break, the artists (by number) will pick a photograph --or written piece-- to serve as inspiration for another work of art and remove it from the display. Participants will be limited to approx. 20-25 members due to space. If an artist is unable to attend the November meeting, they may designate a proxy to select their photo.

Artwork:

Use your talent and creativity to create a piece of art --or writers may create a short poem or written piece-- that is an inspiration from the photo. Any variety of media can be used to create artwork from the photograph including--- paintings, beadwork, fabric art, ceramics, gourd art, stained glass, sculpture, jewelry, etc.

The artwork must be completed and ready to hang / display for the exhibition by the check-in day, Tuesday January 2, 2018. Writers should also have their written material framed or displayed in a way that can be exhibited next to the corresponding photograph.

The artist has approx. 2 months to complete the work. If you do not feel you will be able to complete your work in this limited time (and during the holiday season), you should refrain from participating in the selection process so that someone else may participate.

The Exhibition:

The photograph and the corresponding work will be displayed side by side. There will be an opening reception Saturday Jan. 6th, 2018. The exhibition will be open to the public during open gallery hours, 1/6/18 - 2/12/18. Photographs and other artwork will be for sale. Regular 15% commission would be paid to WAC for all sales. Pick up date for unsold work will be Tuesday, Feb. 13th.
